
ISSUES WITH LEASING TO MARIJUANA BUSINESSES

Author(s): Trainor Fairbrook

Trainor Fairbrook attorneys Alison E. Geddes, Jennifer L. Pruski and David W. Creeggan recently presented a program on the legalization of marijuana and the impact it has on commercial real estate to brokers and property managers at CBRE's Sacramento office. This presentation addressed the current conflicts between California and federal laws, issues which confront property owners and managers in leasing to marijuana users and problems which can arise with marijuana businesses as your tenants.
