

PROTECTING YOUR ASSETS: USING AND ENFORCING UCC LIENS IN LEASE TRANSACTIONS

Author(s): Trainor Fairbrook

Join Trainor Fairbrook attorneys Jennifer Pruski and Alison Geddes in an informative and interactive seminar on the use of UCC liens to secure an interest in personal property owned by commercial tenants and the enforcement of those liens in the event that the tenants' business fails.

This seminar will discuss creating, perfecting and enforcing liens on personal property. Contracting for a security interest within a lease and perfecting that interest may provide some level of assurance that landlords may recover some part of their investment and mitigate their damages.

Who Should Attend:

Property Managers, Brokers, Real Estate Agents, Asset Managers

Tuesday, June 16, 2015

8:15 am – 8:30 am Registration

8:30 am – 10:00 am Program

This seminar is free, but space is limited.

If you have any questions or need more information, please contact Katrina Davenport at (916) 929-7000