100% of Trainor Fairbrook's attorneys were selected by their peers as Top Lawyers in Sacramento Magazine's survey!

Congratulations to Charles Trainor, Jennifer Pruski, Michael Gualco, Heather Johnston and Candice Harper for being selected for Real Estate. William Davis and Laurel Dein were selected for Estate Planning and Probate, John Fairbrook and Daniel Steinberg were selected for General Litigation, Michael Middleton was selected for Employment and Labor Law, Jessica Robison was selected for Arbitration, Alison Geddes was selected for Land Use/Zoning, Colby Campbell was selected for Business/Corporate Law and David Creeggan, along with a second nomination for Candice Harper, was selected for Commercial Law.

This is the second year that Sacramento Magazine contracted with Professional Research Services to find the top lawyers in the Sacramento area. Area attorneys were asked to recommend other attorneys among 53 legal specialties. Each attorney was allowed to recommend up to three attorneys in each given specialty. Each nomination was carefully evaluated on the basis of the survey results, the legitimacy of their license and their current standing with the State Bar of California.
