

“SWING A HAMMER”

Author(s): Trainor Fairbrook

Join us for an engaging presentation on protective measures and best practices reviewing the Mechanics' Lien laws, IRS impact, and recent changes to the law that may make or break your bottom line. Mark Bellows, Partner at GALLINA, LLP and Daniel Steinberg, Chair of Trainor Fairbrook's Construction Practice Group will discuss appropriate procedures and documentation for your projects to reduce risk and maximize profit. Whether you are an owner, builder, general contractor or a specialty contractor, this seminar will provide the tools to grow your business within a competitive industry and help you identify and manage potential risks to maximize profits.

Topics will include:

- Industry income tax rates and rules
- Preliminary Notice
- Waivers and Releases
- Recording Mechanics' Liens
- Stop Notices and Bond Claims
- Recent IRS activity on contractors & developers
- Forms and instruction for future use

Wednesday June 5, 2013

4:00 P.M. Program | 5:00 P.M. Reception

Seating is limited so please sign up now.