
UP IN SMOKE OR A SMOKIN' GOOD DEAL?

Author(s): Trainor Fairbrook

At a BOMA luncheon held on October 27, 2016, Trainor Fairbrook attorneys Jennifer Pruski, Alison Geddes and David Creeggan discussed the legalization of marijuana and the impact it has on commercial real estate. This presentation addressed the current conflicts between California and federal laws, issues which confront property owners and managers in leasing to marijuana users and problems which can arise with marijuana businesses as your tenants.

If you would like more information on this topic, please contact Jennifer Pruski, Alison Geddes or David Creeggan.