

TREVOR W. MARTIN

COMMERCIAL REAL ESTATE

Trevor W. Martin is an attorney in Trainor Fairbrook's Real Estate Transactions, Leasing and Property Management Departments. Mr. Martin's practice focuses on Real Estate enforcement and Landlord-Tenant related disputes. He is experienced in real estate transactions and disputes, intellectual property issues, and complex business litigation. Mr. Martin is bar certified in California and Texas.

Prior to joining Trainor Fairbrook, Trevor was the founding and managing partner at TWM Legal Attorney Services in Folsom, California and Managing Broker for Land Catchers Investments Inc. Trevor has a degree in Electrical Engineering from the University of California, Davis, with emphasis in electromagnetics and radio frequency telecommunications. Mr. Martin went to study at Lincoln Law School of Sacramento with the intent to master the fields of real estate development and sales, as well as to enter the field of litigating business disputes and intellectual property rights. Trevor's extensive Real Estate background and previous work in the Real Estate Industry has contributed to his successful representation of prominent Business Owners.
